

Picture Gallery from Annual Meeting 2008

Participants were warmly greeted at the Conference Center at the Maritime Institute in Baltimore

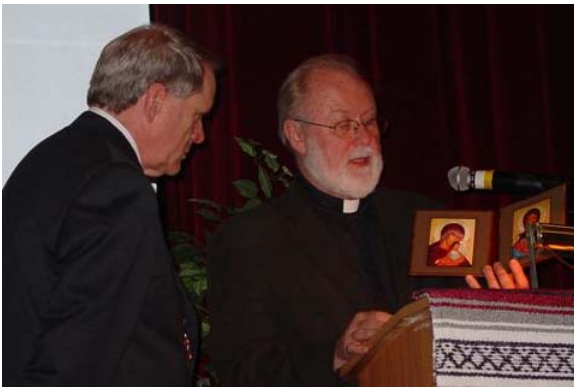

Opening worship

Cardinal Keeler, Bishop James Leggett, Dr. Bill Shaw, Rev. Cliff Kirkpatrick, Rev Wes Granberg-Michaelson, Rev Lydia Veliko, Dr. Dick Hamm in opening worship

The table bore a candle for Christ and five candles to represent the five families of CCT.

New Moderator Fathe Leonid Kishkovsky thanks Wes Granberg-Michaelson with a gift of traveler's icons

Dick Hamm is commissioned as executive administrator with prayer.

The Salvation Army provided a brass ensemble for Thursday morning worship

Father Fr. Theodore Boback of St. Andrew's Church (OCA)

“Discernment Groups” were a primary instrument of the Annual Meeting

On Wednesday we heard five representatives share perspectives on their CCT families' struggles against poverty

Stephen Thurston

Jeff Farmer

Nicholas Chakos

John Thomas

John Carr

We heard from three of our poverty-fighting participants:
Bread for the World, Habitat for Humanity, and World Vision

Richard Stearns of World Vision

Asma Lateef, Director of Bread for the World Institute

Rafaath Zaki, Director of Church Relations, Habitat for Humanity

We visited S.O.M.E. (a local poverty agency in D.C.) and Sojourners, which is a CCT participant organization

Jim Wallis, Sojourners

Founder of S.O.M.E., Father Adams

The Clinic Entrance of S.O.M.E.

The S.O.M.E. Dental Clinic

The S.O.M.E. housing office

A S.O.M.E. Affordable Housing Facility

A S.O.M.E. Daily Dining Room serves hundreds